Imagine, even years ago, being physically debilitated with an illness and your doctor's response is, "move." That must feel insurmountable when you're ill. And, it's a common response some residents of Detroit, Michigan claim they've been told. A lot of learning occurred over #waterpurity in #Flint. As much as I learned they learned many new things from me also. For instance, water purity is critical, but it must be matched with #waterpressure and #watervolune ... See more
